"Developments in Electronic Media Regulation," Communications Law in the Digital Age 2025

Speaking Engagement
November 6-7, 2025
New York, NY and online

Join Brad Deutsch on November 6 for a panel on "Developments in Electronic Media Regulation."

After completing this session, participants will be able to answer the following questions:

- What are the key priorities and initiatives of the FCC under Chairman Brendan Carr's leadership?
- How has the FCC's approach to media ownership evolved, and what are the implications of the 2022 quadrennial review still pending?
- What are the recent developments in the FCC's enforcement actions, and how has the agency's approach changed under the new administration?
- What are the significant legal and regulatory changes affecting the communications sector, particularly in relation to the Supreme Court's recent decisions?
- How is the FCC managing the balance between promoting innovation and ensuring consumer protection in the rapidly evolving media and communications landscape?

Visit the PLI website for the full agenda, CLE credit details and registration.

Contact

Brad C. Deutsch

Related Services

Communications, Telecom & Media